“Enriching lives through employment and community connections”

TSE is a nonprofit company that has provided supports to people with developmental disabilities since 1961. Services include skill training, community connection opportunities, job development, and support in partnership with businesses. TSE serves over 300 individuals in four service sites and at over 90 businesses throughout the Metro area.

TSE services are nationally accredited. Best practices are employed to assure the highest quality of services.

Your support of TSE ensures that this great work continues to meet the needs of the people we serve. Contributions will be used for our underfunded transportation services and training resources.
